Orgaia explores the hidden architecture of nature.

Inspired by patterns, repetition and the quiet logic found in natural forms, this brand creates leather goods that balance structure with simplicity.

Curved lines, sculptural volumes and precise details come together to form objects that feel intentional, timeless and deeply connected to their material.

Defined by precision, thoughtful details,
Orgaia creates objects that feel both structured and alive.

A vision of design rooted in natural order and made to last.

DUNEA

Inspired by ever-changing landscapes of the desert,
Dunea explores the balance between structure and fluidity.

Forged by my travels across Africa, particularly the Namib Desert, this collection reflects my personal connection to silent landscapes and emotions they evoke.

Each piece reveals the dance between light and shadow, depth and infinity.

A palette ranging from brown to orange, with a touch of gold, echoes the warmth of the desert
and its shifting tones throughout the day.

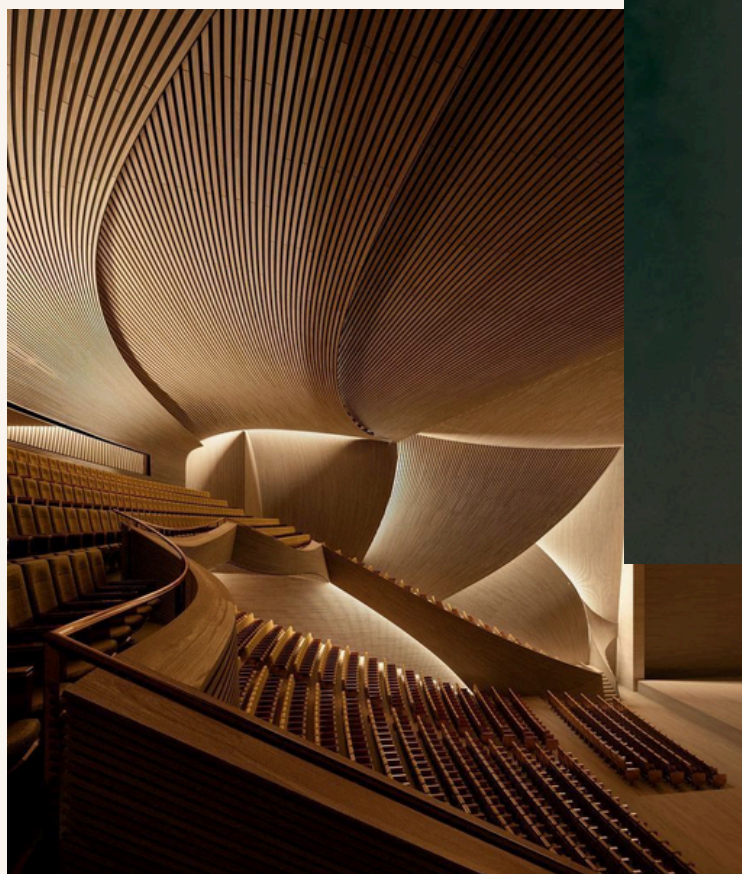

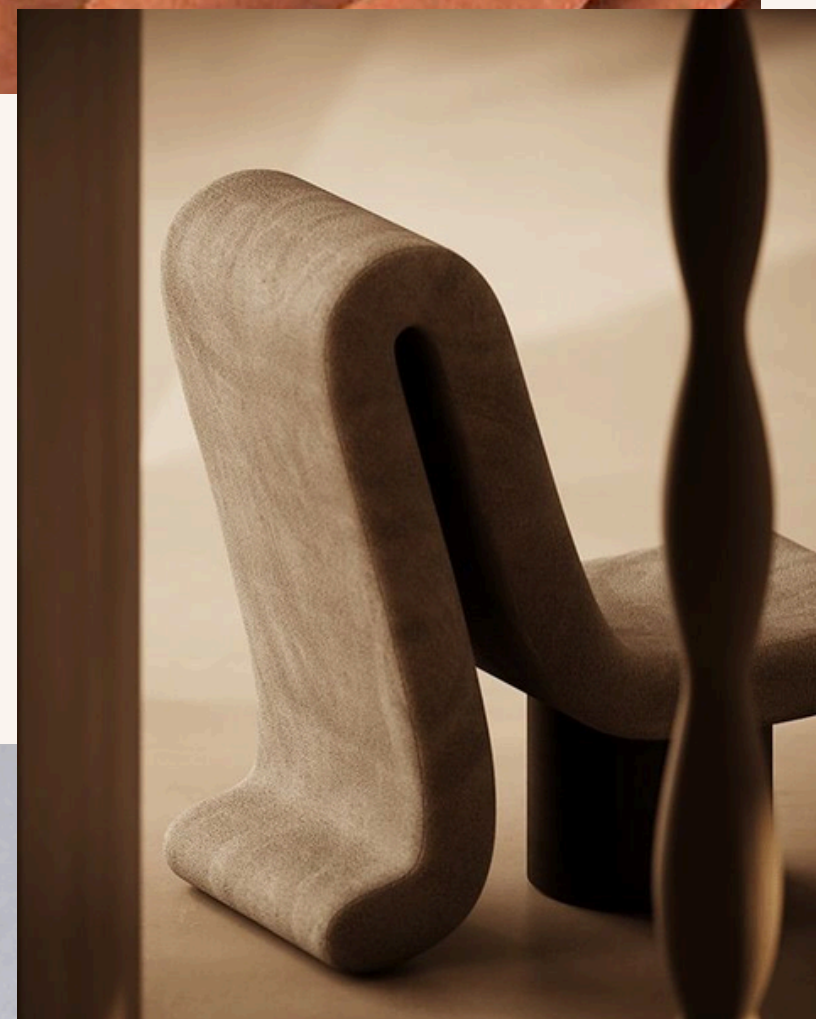

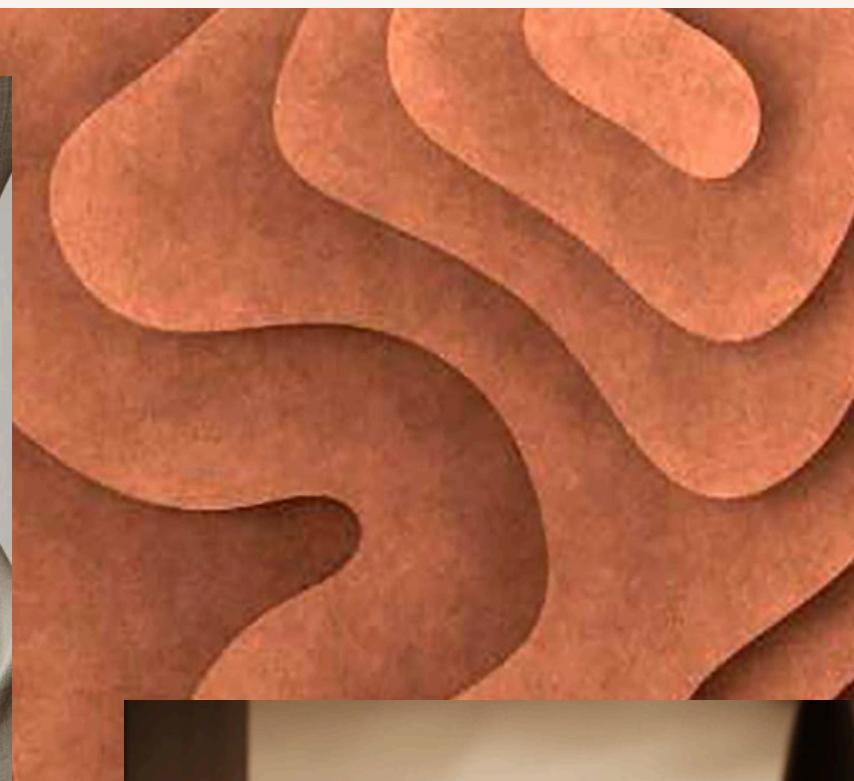

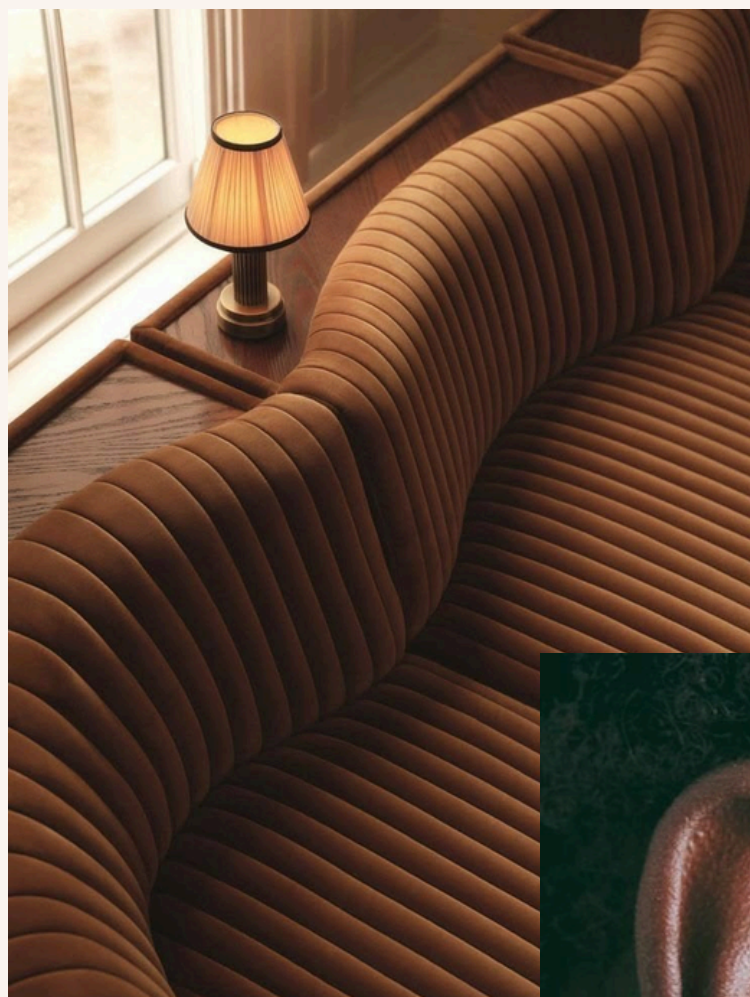

More than objects, these pieces give life to the memories of my travels where connections leave their mark.

This collection was inspired by landscapes, guided by instant and created with passion.
