

BASKET OF WONDERS - MOODBOARD

There was a time in last summer when I was lying on a harvest field and see an imagination in my head:

A child in a raincoat wandering around the field and collecting beautiful plant, stones and seeds on the land.

Each chosen with care, not for value, but for wonder — and gently placed into his basket of curiosity.

BASKET OF WONDERS - DESIGN PROCESS

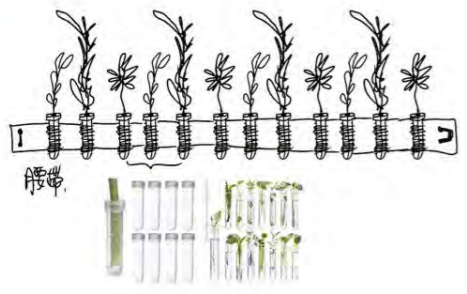

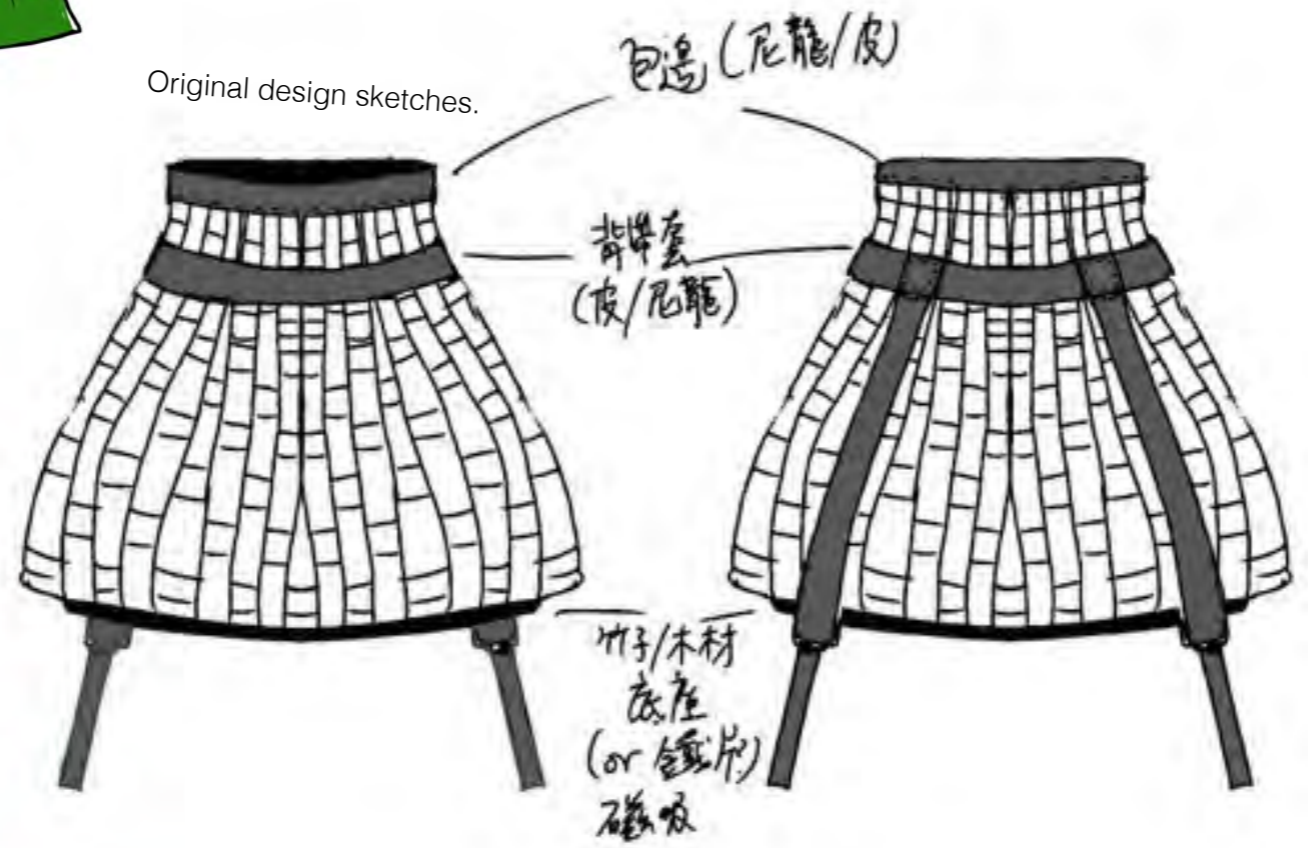

This is my imagination of that child in raincoat and basket.
 Decided to cut a huge circle at raincoat's back so the shoulder straps are hidden inside the coat.

Mockups with paper.

Original design sketches.
